Who We Are

Our excellent services will help you start and grow your business.

What We Do

The Business Model

Fill My Diary is a Meeting Booking Service. We book meetings for companies who don't have the time or the resources to do it themselves. We book meetings with the decision makers of their target audience and we leave it up to the client to close the deal. We take all the heavy lifting out of the game for you and we keep you busy with the money making part of business instead of the laborious administrative part. No more struggling to find new business, we will find it for you.

The Process

We learn about the Client by meeting with them and having them fill out a detailed on-boarding form. We then do the research and discover what target market the Client needs to get in front of. We research and qualify the target market and go from there.

Results

We guarantee a minimum amount of meetings each month and we take great pride in our communication with our clients. We fully believe in full transparency and we keep in contact with the Client at all times to make sure we are all on the same page.

A message from the CEO

Brian Rich, Founder & CEO

Having worked in sales across many industries for over 20 years, the key to my success is what every sales person naturally should have. That is the ability to pick up the phone, speak to the right person, qualify the prospect, make the appointment and close the deal. Frustratingly, for many companies, the majority of sales staff can sell a product when they are in front of the client but they lack the confidence and initiation to pick up the phone to book that meeting. I realized one evening that I could help many companies fill this gap and so I created Fill My Diary. We do the cold calling, we discover the need and we qualify that meeting. We won't send you into these meetings unless we are sure there is potential to close the deal.
